

Chelmsford Women of Today, Inc.

“People who care.”

Come to a
Chelmsford Women of Today meeting!

Meetings are held the third Tuesday of each month from Sept-June at the Chelmsford
Public Library, 25 Boston Road
Social Hour @ 6:30 PM; Meeting @ 7 PM
For Summer Meetings: check website
Annual dues are $25 per member

For more information, please contact:

Donna Severs, Membership
(978) 256-6466
membch2@mawt.org

Anne Dumke, President
(978) 250-0089
Presch@mawt.org

or

Chelmsford Women of Today, Inc.
P.O. Box 4029
Chelmsford, MA 01824
www.cwotma.org

Membership Information

Name: _____ Address: _____
ZIP Code: _____ Phone #: _____ Email: _____ Date: _____
Birth Date: _____ Partner: _____
How did you hear about Chelmsford Women of Today?

Please give this form and a check for $25.00 payable to Chelmsford Women of Today, Inc. to our Treasurer or mail to P.O. Box 4029, South Chelmsford, MA01824. www.cwotma.org.

Who Are the Chelmsford Women of Today?

- Women or men of any race or creed who are at least 18 years old. (Chelmsford residency not required)
- We are a dynamic nonprofit organization dedicated to community service, personal growth, and fellowship
- We offer programming in such areas as Health & Wellness and Personal Development which includes Effective Speaking, Effective Writing, Leadership, Team Building and Effective Listening
- We are a local chapter of the Massachusetts Women of Today which is affiliated with U.S. Women of Today

What Do You Get Out of Being a Member?

- The opportunity to develop friendships with others in your community who share similar interests and goals
- Leadership development through active participation
- The opportunity to improve your community
- Planned activities for your family
- Knowledge of public affairs and community

What Do You Give to the Chelmsford Women of Today?

A little or a lot. Take an active part in our monthly general membership meetings and/or participate in any of our many community projects.

Past Projects:

- Project Linus Quilts
- Community Seminars: Personal Financial Planning, Self Defense for Women, Fix It Yourself, Buying and Selling on EBay
- July 4th - Duck Pond
- Bruins Autographed Hockey Stick Raffle
- Easter Baskets for the Shelter
- Christmas for the Troops
- Muffins with Santa
- Member's Night Out/Game Night
- Spare the Violence Bowl a Thon

Past Beneficiaries:

- MSPCC & MSPCA
- Alternative House (Shelter)
- Lowell Wish Project & Live Smart
- Chelmsford Open Spaces
- Lowell General Hospital Pediatric Library
- Chelmsford Food Pantry
- Chelmsford Secret Santa
- Table of Plenty
- My Father's House

Our goal is to offer community projects in education, fundraising, and service for people of all ages. Our fundraising efforts are strictly to promote social welfare, the advancement of education, and to relieve the poor and distressed or the underprivileged in our communities.

.....

CREED

Let us give generously our friendship to each other, our talents, ideas, labors and contributions to the betterment of our community, our hearts and our assistance to the unfortunate, and our attention to the great responsibilities that are ours as concerned citizens dedicated to serving our community.

.....

For more information, please contact:
www.cwotma.org

or visit
www.uswomenoftoday.org

www.mawt.org